

Working with Community Cultural Interpreters

Date: Friday, August 30, 2019

Time: 9:00-11:00am or 2:00pm-4:00pm

Location: Multicultural Association of Fredericton, 28 Saunders Street

No cost to attend, but registration is mandatory. This session will analyze how culture may influence our interactions and communication styles, and present the dynamics of language interpretation in working with service interpreters. This session is organized for services providers who work closely with Community Cultural Interpreters.

About the presenter: Merek Jagielski trains community interpreters and has published the Community Interpretation Handbook listed as a training resource by the Federal Translation Bureau and National Library. He is the funding board member of the Association of Community Interpreters of Nova Scotia (ACINS) and volunteers as consultant/examiner for this Association
