Community Cultural Interpreter Training

Training location: MCAF, 28 Saunders Street, Fredericton, NB

Saturday, August 31, 8:30 am-4:30 pm &
Sunday, September 1, 8:30am -12:30 pm

Training in Interpretation is a para-professional level training in the field of community/settlement interpretation. It is designed for community members interested in enhancing their knowledge of interpretation and practical skills and competencies.

This training is adult-centered, competency based and delivered with a “hands on” approach. Training participants are introduced to the theoretical and practical framework of the community and settlement interpretation.

They also have an opportunity, through lectures, case studies, and simulated interpreting situations, to learn a variety of interpretation skills necessary to perform effectively as community interpreter.

No cost to attend, but registration is mandatory.
